

This is an abbreviated correspondence with HMRC, just to show that, despite (apparently empty) threats, they are apparently not willing to pursue this matter in the courts. The last item is a collection agency retiring from the fray.

Dear Sirs

HMRC in Shetland

From our research it seems that the UK Crown has no authority in Shetland. That being the case, we conclude that HMRC also has no authority here. Our members are asking why they need to pay UK taxes when the authority to exact them does not exist.

One member in particular has asked us to take some action.

They are willing and able to pay their VAT, but need assurance that the money is not being demanded fraudulently. Until they are shown proof that HMRC has the authority to operate in Shetland, they will hold back their VAT payments because they have no wish to aid and abet such a fraud. We suggest you put this question to your legal team and ask them what evidence they would need to show a court in Shetland for proof of its jurisdiction.

In the event that you are unable to show proof of authority in Shetland,  will reasonably expect full recompense for the VAT and other taxes they have paid in the past.

In such an important matter as this, proof of authority must be easy to produce. We will therefore expect a reply within 14 days of your receipt of this communication.

Since this is a matter of interest to many of our members, we ask that you reply to us and we will coordinate correspondence on their behalf.

By our hand and seal

The man commonly known as Stuart: Hill, sovereign in my own right, authorised representative.

Dear Sirs,

HMRC in Shetland

The time has expired for a reply to our letter of 11 December 2023, received by you on 15 December 2023. In the absence of a reply we conclude that you are unable to show proof of your authority in Shetland. As we explained, the company is able and willing to pay its genuine liabilities, but its owners are not willing to aid and abet a fraud. They will pay immediately on seeing proof of your authority in Shetland.

Accordingly, our member  will be submitting a VAT return  he will be marking all incoming amounts as exempt.

Meanwhile,  requires a record of all payments made to HMRC for the past 20 years. Please find  request enclosed.

Dear Mr Irvine

VAT

I refer to a letter received from a Stuart Hill, dated 11 December 2023, in which he states that the UK Crown has no authority in Shetland.

I apologise for the delay in replying and for any inconvenience this may have caused.

We have an unusually high volume of work on hand and are unfortunately responding outside the 15 working day target.

Firstly, please note that I cannot see any authority / any valid authority on file from you allowing me to deal with Mr Hill on your behalf.

As I cannot currently verify Mr Hill's authority, I am unable to progress his query any further.

Further information on agent authorisation can be found by typing 'Tax Agents and Advisers VAT' into the search facility on our website.

Thirdly, the arguments being deployed by Mr Hill are meaningless and I strongly suggest that you take proper legal advice.

VAT law in the UK is governed mainly by the Value Added Tax Act 1994 as amended by subsequent Finance Acts. But there are many detailed rules in Statutory Instruments. These are either orders made by the Treasury or regulations made by HMRC. You can get copies

Payment to HMRC in Shetland

Our members, [REDACTED] continue to be plagued by your demands for money. The latest, dated 18 August 2024, of which we enclose a copy, is again unsigned and has no return address.

Please find enclosed a further copy of our letter dated 11 December 2023, to which we have received no reply. Until the fundamental questions posed in that letter are answered, you are inviting our members to engage in fraudulent activity by a person who appears to act as an organisation, or an officer of an organistaion purporting to have business in Shetland, but is unable to show the authority to back such a claim.

Only letters signed by a real man or woman will be acknowledged. Unsigned letters are fraudulent in themselves. If HMRC has any real authority in Shetland, it should be easy to show. Meanwhile, any demand for money without being able to show the authority to make such a demand is fraudulent on its face.

There are two options open to you:

1. Take our members to court for non-payment and be prepared to show proof of your authority, or
2. cease and desist from all activity against our members and refund all monies previously paid.

The choice is yours. Kindly advise which option you wish to choose. This matter may not simply be ignored.

And as the man

Dear C. Baillie,

HMRC in Shetland

On checking our files, I came across a letter from you dated 27 February 2024 which appears to have been unanswered. We apologise for this oversight.

This letter is in reply to yours, but is not specific to [REDACTED] It is of general application to Shetland as a whole and particularly to the people of The Sovereign Nation of Shetland.

You make some sweeping assertions in your letter, with all of which we agree except the second paragraph on page 2, which reads:

“The UK consists of Great Britain, Northern Ireland and the waters within 12 nautical miles of their coastlines. This includes the Shetlands.”

We agree with this statement apart from the last sentence. It is not sufficient to make a bald assertion. If you have proof that Shetland is part of the UK (or even Scotland), it is something you should have at your fingertips. Since late 2023 we have been asking HMRC and your debt collectors for proof of their authority in Shetland. Freedom of Information requests (see www.ourfois.com) now reveal that nobody, from the UK and Scottish governments downwards, can show proof that Shetland is part of Scotland. (See also attached letter from HMRC). If Shetland cannot be proved to be part of Scotland, your operations here are fraudulent.

If you wish to continue pursuing our people, then take them to court - but be prepared to show the court how it has jurisdiction. If you do not wish to take this course, then cease and desist from all further activity. In short, put up or shut up.

In the absence of proof of your authority, any further action by you will be fraudulent. We accept your offer to act as an organisation, or an officer of an organisation purporting to have business in Shetland on condition that you agree to make payment of £10,000 per day for every day you continue activity against our people without showing proof of that authority. You do not need to respond if you agree to these terms. Agreement is by silence within 14 days, or by performance. Liability is several in your personal and in your official capacities. Our contract commences with your next demand.

By our hand and seal

Dear Alasdair Calderwood Skeoch,

HMRC in Shetland Account No. DRS0014456626

Thank you for your (unsigned) letter demanding money on behalf of HMRC from our people

Since late 2023 we have been asking HMRC and their debt collectors for proof of their authority in Shetland with a complete lack of response (see enclosures below). Freedom of Information requests (see www.ourfois.com) now reveal that nobody, from the UK and Scottish governments downwards, can show proof that Shetland is part of Scotland. Apart from yourselves, collection agencies Past Due and Bluestone have made demands, but without result. If you wish to continue pursuing our people, then take them to court - but be prepared to show the court how it has jurisdiction. If you do not wish to take this course, then cease and desist from all further activity. In short, put up or shut up.

In the absence of proof of your authority, any further action by you will be fraudulent. We accept your offer to act as an organisation, or an officer of an organisation purporting to have business in Shetland on condition that you agree to make payment of £1,000 per day for every day you continue activity against our people without showing proof of that authority. You do not need to respond if you agree to these terms. Agreement is by silence within 14 days, or by performance. Liability is several in your personal and in your official capacities. Our contract commences with your next demand.

Client reference:

Dear Mr Irvine,

We have received correspondence from Mr Hill at our office on the 04/11/2025 advising he acts on your behalf. I appreciate the chance to make things right. Thank you for waiting while I found out more about what happened.

What I think you are telling me

- Mr Hill has made us aware that you do not respond to unsigned letters.
- It is also mentioned that HMRC and debt collectors have lacked any evidence of authority to act in Shetland as this is not part of Scotland.
- Mr Hill stated that an agreement has been put forward of £1000 per collection activity we make.

My Investigation

I have looked into this for you and found out the following:

- Firstly, I wish to advise that we have issued this response directly to you as we have not been provided authorisation by you to discuss this matter with any third parties. A reference has been made to you will not respond to unsigned letters, please be assured our letters are generated using templates approved by our client; not by one specific person this is the reason you have not received a signed letter from us. If someone writes a bespoke response to you personally, you will see their name and their team at Advantis which also will be signed.
- HMRC have asked us to contact you regarding the balance of £4108.76 for Value Added Tax (VAT) for the tax year 2025 with the latest due date 07/05/2025. Please be advised that HMRC charges interest on late payments to encourage people to pay on time. The interest rate is based on the Bank of England's base rate, plus 4%. This means that the longer it takes you to pay the amount you owe, the more it will cost you.
- All contact is made under our client's instruction to contact you to discuss and resolve this matter. Advantis politely disagree that Shetland is not part of Scotland. We are on the understanding that Shetland would fall under Scotland and governed as a country within Scotland. Please be advised that Advantis reject all fee schedules and will not be entering into any agreements.
- We will not take any court action against you. If you chose to commence legal action against us, we will instruct our solicitors to defend us in any court action.

a future MORE CLEAR.

Outcome

After looking into your comments, I am sorry to say that I cannot agree with them. I know this is probably not what you wanted to hear, and I am sorry if this upsets you. Please know that we take all feedback seriously and think carefully before making decisions.

Next Steps

I have elected to close the account and return this to HMRC for their handling. You will not receive any further contact from us. We encourage you to contact the client directly to discuss this further.

Your Rights

I want to make you aware that should you remain dissatisfied with our response to your complaint, you have the right to refer your complaint to our trade body, the Credit Services Association (CSA), free of charge.

Further information regarding the Credit Services Association and details of how to refer a complaint to them can be found on their website: www.csa-uk.com. Alternatively, you can contact them:
